Passing Fair Night

On Dec. 11—King George was not in protracted fever and the night lung infection had become so greatly pronounced that he might not live another 15 hours.
The greatest anxiety prevails throughout the nation.
It is not that the infection is so serious that it can't be overcome, but after three weeks of fever it is now practically impossible for the country to face the King unconscious.

It is officially reported at 13 that the King is still unconscious since morning.
He has been ill for more than a year.
The King's health has been so poor that he has been unable to attend the coronation of the new King of England.

Details of the King's condition will be given to the public in the morning.

BABY IN SEWER Infant's Cries Leads To Rescue Of Cage Of Ice

NEW YORK Dec. 11—Thrown into a sewer a baby girl only four hours old was saved last night after it had lain for more than an hour on a cage of ice at the bottom of the sewer. Its cries attracted the attention of Joseph Leshansky, a milk driver who was on the street above. Ice was so thick on the sewer top that ascetic forces had to be used to make an opening. Detectives are hunting the parents.

Plans for the contest, which will be open to all local citizens, young and old, were announced today by the theater management.

The essays, limited to 100 words each, are to have Ray and his career as subject matter. The essayists will state their opinions regarding Ray as a screen performer.

Ray will appear in a vaudeville act at the Palace Thursday, Friday and Saturday and at the same time will be seen on the screen as "Corrine Griffiths," leading man in "The Garden of Eden."

All essays must be in by midnight, Thursday.

The first prize will be a two-months' pass to the Palace theater, the second a one-month pass, third, a pass for two weeks, fourth, one week and fifth and sixth, single admissions.

Ray, one of the best-known persons in motion picture circles, was born in Springfield, Ill., but is generally regarded as a native of California, where he received his education, in Polytechnic High school at Los Angeles, business college in the same city and Wallace Dramatic school.

After achieving success in motion pictures and on the speaking stage, Ray is now planning appearance before the public as a singer. He hopes to take his place in comic opera and has been training his voice in that direction for the last six months. His instructor is Signor Otto Morondo, of Los Angeles, who predicts success for Ray in this field.

MOTHER SHIPS FOR AIRCRAFT URGED

Rear Admiral Moffett Makes Annual Report; Says Need is Acute

Washington, Dec. 11.—Rear Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the navy's Bureau of Aeronautics, today urged Congress to authorize additional appropriations for the construction of another ship and carriers to the fleet. The Bureau believes it is a matter of immediate importance that the necessary steps be taken to provide for the remainder of the carrier program. The most urgent matter to hand during the next session of Congress is the passage of the new construction bill, which carries with it one carrier of a size and design approved by the department.

Deeming also that the need for aircraft repair ships is becoming more apparent, Moffett cited the situation in the Asiatic where the navy has no repair facilities and is prohibited by treaty from establishing any such facilities on shore.

Under the existing arrangement, vessels be converted for this use.

"The Bureau of Aeronautics," he said, "cannot too strongly recommend the addition of aircraft carriers to the fleet. The Bureau believes it is a matter of immediate importance that the necessary steps be taken to provide for the remainder of the carrier program. The most urgent matter to hand during the next session of Congress is the passage of the new construction bill, which carries with it one carrier of a size and design approved by the department."

Deeming also that the need for aircraft repair ships is becoming more apparent, Moffett cited the situation in the Asiatic where the navy has no repair facilities and is prohibited by treaty from establishing any such facilities on shore.

Under the existing arrangement, aircraft in need of repair or overhaul is shipped from the Asiatic station to Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, and when the 1929 plane program is further along the situation will become even more acute.

Moffett reported that the five year building program authorized by Congress is progressing satisfactorily. "The foundations have been securely laid," Moffett said, "and continued adherence to this program will bring naval aviation to its authorized strength in accordance with the program."

He said the Bureau "views with satisfaction the progress being made with civil aviation." It is axiomatic, he added, "that civil aviation bears the same relation to naval and military aviation as the merchant marine Learn to the surface navy. The Bureau is proud to have contributed its share to the advancement of commercial aeronautics."

Discussing Helium

Discussing the helium situation, Moffett said future prospects are excellent for obtaining more than a sufficient quantity of this gas to supply the Navy's requirements, and at "progressively decreasing prices."

The problem of helium storage and transportation, however, is demanding serious attention, he added, but by devices rigged up at Lakewood, the storage capacity there, the home of the Los Angeles, the chief user of helium, is increased by some 2,250,000 cubic feet.

A contract made by the Department in 1927 for the production of helium, he said, has proved to be particularly advantageous.

"Six months after the contract was made," he said, "the concern had erected a plant and was producing helium. It may be remarked, however, that this achievement would not have been possible had it not been for the pioneer work the government has done since 1919 in helium production." The plant referred to, Moffett said, is now producing approximately half a million cubic feet a month.

The report deals with the various activities of the aviation squadrons of the fleet during the last fiscal year, the operations of the Los Angeles, and the state of completion of the various projects under way, together with the completed projects.

Those are the excuses the 11-year-old boy gave when caught stealing a New Testament by a clove in the store. He cried as he gave the excuses and insisted that he had never tried to steal before. The little book was displayed on the top of a showcase.

YOUTH ADMITS HE MURDERED TEACHER

Confesses to Attack Because She Slapped Him Three Years Ago

Stanton, Mich., Dec. 31—Indiscreet in everything, including bison in his Jimmie Deacon, 13-year-old son of Elmer Deacon, pretty school teacher of Sheridan, Mich., today sat in his cell in the Juvenile Court of the city and was sentenced to be imprisoned in Jungle Store.

The boy's confession late yesterday that he had killed his former school teacher to death with a large summer, he had slapped him three times, was established by the mother of Lee Bruce, 19, the young teacher's sweetheart who was being held by state police as her probable slayer.

I killed her because I hated her as Jimmie Deacon repeated over and over again. She is a good girl and she is a good teacher.

When any one has been mean to me, I never forget it, he stated stubbornly.

That means, a chastising at the throwing of a word of spite when he is in the fifth grade was torture to him that was done, it would mean those exposed to the disease would travel over the entire state and in all probability spread the disease.

Schools Closed

The epidemic, although milder than that which ravaged the country during the World war, has struck the student bodies of a number of universities and colleges, forcing a tem-or the dicas, Toledo and Cincinnati are in the throes of a slight epidemic. Several deaths have been reported directly attributable to the illness, while hundreds are absent from their employment. The situation is believed to be well in hand by Dr. Paul F. Orr, city health commissioner who has completed a survey of the city and issued several instructive warnings which are being well followed by Toledoans.

Another industrial city which re-cases of mild influenza is Akron. Only 10 cases have been officially diagnosed as that disease, however.

10,000 Have Colds

It is reported in Akron by health authorities that an estimated 10,000 men in the city are suffering from a mild form of the disease. The number of those who have died of this malady the majority are school children. It is said that 50 rubber plant workers are known to be infected and 40 carburetor workers.

At the same time, Lake Erie for the last year is reporting the heaviest losses of life of the disease. Further south the cases are estimated to be very few and well isolated.

assessment will be payable in five until installments.

Division of Cost

Division of the cost of construction of sewers provided for in the title resolution to be adopted will be made in the same way.

This resolution provides for the building of sanitary and storm water sewers on Main st. from East Center st. to the west side of Greenwood st. and extending on East Center st. from High st. to the west side of Greenwood st. were provided for in the fourth resolution to be passed. The street is to be widened seven and three-quarters feet on each side.

Of the expense of this improvement the city will pay the cost of intersections one-fifth of the cost of a storm and 50 per cent of the remainder of the street, excepting that part from Main st. to State st. which is the right of way of the Columbus, Delaware & Marion Electric Co. which will be charged to the C. D. & M.
The remainder will be assessed upon the property owners.

Engineer Tom S. Cahill informed council that the present sewers are Daily Proverb—"The fate of a nation will ultimately depend upon the strength and health of the population."

A novelist says "a woman's clothes are her sentiments expressed in fabrics." There are an awful lot of women whose sentiments are decidedly limited.

Auto deaths in Wisconsin have increased from twelve in 1912 to 502 in 1927. And yet a lot of people are always worrying over the possibility of another war!

Since Elsie McCormick has called attention to the fact that the most advanced opinion is that gout is really caused by a lack of balance, we find less difficulty in diagnosing the cases of some people who admit theirs.

A Chicago man is seeking a divorce on the ground that his wife refuses to maintain for him an "old-fashioned home." As a sleeper, old Rip Van Winkle wasn't in his class.

A twenty-year-old youth, who was doing the police station for a Chicago paper a year ago for $18 a week, was last week given $6,000,000 by his grandfather for a birthday present, which means an income of approximately $1,000 a week. What a lot of downright enjoyable hard work that dad is going to miss!

"Peaches" Browning has been made correspondent in a New York divorce suit. It's hard to see how "Peaches" can much longer be denied stellar honors in the screen world.

President Rightmire, of the Ohio State university, is seeking authorization for an expenditure of $11,513,195 of state funds for the various activities of the institution for two years beginning January 1. Without going into the question of whether or no education pays, it's a clinch that it costs.

The British League of Nations union demands an immediate understanding with the United States on armaments. As we understand it, the British League of Nations union is made up of much the same kind of people as those over here who would have the United States discard all our teachings and traditions and turn our future over to the packed councils of the League.

A survey conducted by the school of commerce of the University of Wisconsin shows that more girls between the ages of fifteen and twenty-four living in warmer climates get married than girls of the same class in colder climates. What's the university lying to do, anyway? Is it trying to cause an exodus of girls of marrying age to the South?

It followed, President Coolidge's suggestion, that a modest house be erected in the hills near Washington as a summer home for the chief executive of the nation, will just naturally bar future presidents from the joy of living in the very heart of the garden spot of the world. Our native modesty prevents further particularizing regarding location.

Picture Arouses Italian Ire.

Premier Mussolini has summarily dismissed the entire Italian board of censorship for passing the American film, "The Street Angel," the action of the premier following a gala showing of the picture in Rome to which the entire audience had been invited as guests of the management. In the opinion of one "outraged critic," it was due solely to the fact that the audience was so maddened that the theater was saved from being "inundated under a Niagara of violent indignation." Even so, expressions of the disapproval of the audience were frequent and long-continued.

"Perhaps in the remote past conditions approached those shown in the picture," is the comment of another critic, published in the Impero, "but in Mussolini's Italy certainly nothing of that nature exists. Gypsies, underworld characters, prostitution, cheating, miser, vice, over-dressed peasants, gambling life, people in rags, filthiness, superstition, thuggery, human landscapes immersed in endless fog—ever the classic sun of Italy was obliterated. *** Can you imagine an Italian seascape perpetually steeped in fog?"

This last objection of all those set out is probably the one which was paramount in evoking Italian displeasure. They are proud of their sunshine, as well they may be, for their land is justly called "Sunny Italy." And it is something of an outrage to lay the condition of the story in Naples and throughout the film blanket her wonderful harbor, perhaps the most beautiful bay in the world, in fog.
Certainly the film is not a good advertisement for Italy, which specializes in selling her sunshine to the prospective traveler.

However, having seen the picture, our criticism would not be along the line of the Italian. Our criticism would be that it is thoroughly long for the story it carries and never gets anywhere.

Savings of Over $28,000,000,000.

Statistics given out by W. Espey Albig, deputy manager of the American Bankers' association in charge of the savings division, show that, at the close of the fiscal year ended June 30, savings deposits in the banks of the United States had reached the amazing total of $23,400,000,000, which represented the savings of 53,000,000 individual depositors. This total, the deputy points out, shows the greatest gain for a year ever recorded, but three of all the states of the union failing to show increased savings deposits.

The increase to the inhabitant in the fiscal year of 1928 over 1927 was $17, which represents a gain of 7.7 per cent, over 1927 and 11.5 per cent, over the year, 1918, in which the decided upward trend in savings deposits was first manifested. Since the year, 1912, in which adequate records first became available, the gain to the inhabitant has been 169.2 per cent.

These figures, says Mr. Albig, indicate prosperity more general than at any time since the business depression of 1920.

The cost of the World war was fearful, the cost in life and blood, and the cost of property wasted or destroyed. The war was responsible for many of the ills from which we suffer today—economic ills, ills of body, ills of mind, moral ills—but in at least one respect it proved of benefit in that through it and by reason of it we learned how to save.
We economized in our living expenses; some of us, because we had to do so to make both ends meet. It thus taught us economy and the buying of stamps and certificates and bonds inculcated in us the gospel of thrift.
Many who had never saved before, discovered how easy it was to save. They were converted to the saving idea, and when there was no longer occasion to buy securities of the government to enable it to carry on its war activities, the lesson had become so well learned that our people kept on saving for the sake of saving, having been brought, as they never had been before, to realization of the great benefits to be gained through thrift.

The saving habit thus acquired has grown and developed with the passing years, the ability to save having been augmented by improved economic conditions. Meanwhile, the interest derived from the savings became a factor in augmenting the total with the result that, at the end of ten years, we have a condition here in the United States without a parallel in the history of the world.

Galion Junior Glee Club Presents Christmas Play

Galion, Dec. 11.—The junior high school glee club was featured last night in the program presented at the regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers association of the West Side school which was held in the auditorium of the junior high school building. The club, which is composed of 50 boys and girls from the three classes, were under the direction of Mrs. Averil Meuser, elementary music supervisor.

The Christmas play, "The Spirit of Christmas," was effectively given in the opening number of the program and was beautifully staged. Miss Juanita Pluck played the leading role as the Spirit of Christmas and splendidly interpreted the part. Billy Bradford and Edwin Paul Monroe were pages and spoke the prologue while Elwood Cooper appeared as Santa. The three kings from the Orient were interpreted by Henry Ordish, Charles Shaw and Ralph Smith and Dorothy Pluck. Gandy Starkey, Josephine Bentley and Alice Stevens were four Bethlehem maidens who sang a quartet arrangement, "Cradled in the Hay." The chorale Christmas carols as the musical setting.

Name Committee

Janet Layton gave an appropriate reading and Eleanor Kirk played a piano solo. The glee club appeared in three numbers which were well given and a social time closed the final meeting of the year.

Mrs. Leslie Smith, president, and Miss Alice Pluck, secretary of the association, were in charge of the business session. ## WILL PLAY GAMES AT CARDINGTON

Annual Basketball Tournament Scheduled for March 2 at High School

Mr. Gilend, Dec. 11.—The finals and semi-finals of the annual basketball tournament held every spring at the close of the basketball season will be played in Cardington this year, the first time the finals have been taken from Mt. Gilead, the county seat. This change was the result of the county's desire to have the tournament held in Cardington.

Mr. Gilend, Dec. 11.—The final basketball tournament held every spring at the close of the basketball season will be played in Cardington this year, the first time the finals have been taken from Mt. Gilead, the county seat.

There was no question raised that the different stages of the tournament would be divided between Mt. Gilead and Cardington as they alone have adequate space to accommodate the games and the crowds that gather, however, this is the first time since the origin of tournaments in this country that the finals have been taken from the county seat.

The eliminating matches will be played in Mt. Gilead Friday afternoon, and evening, March 1, and the semi-finals and finals in the Cardington gymnasium at the high school Saturday afternoon, and evening, March 2. Instead of using the Loring hall for the matches here, the gymnasium, which can seat 500 spectators, will be used.

County Superintendent H. O. Homan, of Mt. Gilead, has been elected manager of the tournament. He will name committee and assistants.

OSGOOD COPS HARD BATTLE, 15-14

HIS REINSTATEMENT IS PREDICTED

Tennison's "Bad Boy" will be reinstated by the U. S. L. T. A. according to predictions and rumors now afoot. "Big Bill," as Mr. Tilden is sometimes called, was barred from amateur ranks for writing of last year's Wimbledon tournament. Here he is with a few of his favorite bats.

Rumors in Limelight at National League Meeting

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Major league baseball's yearly blitzkrieg was buzzing its hundred refrain today as National league magnates retired behind closed doors in order to decide that the St. Louis Cardinals had won the 1928 pennant and other numbers of a startling nature. They left a lobby filled with rumors of unfinished business in the bowling alleys of the pastime, where rumors are set up and knocked down with great abandon. Proudest among the bowlers were Jack Hendricks, of Cincinnati, and Barney Dreyfuss, of Pittsburgh, both getting "square" on their declarations that they weren't here to tangle with the Giants. Dodgers and Braves as had been variously reported.

However, the notion that the Giants and Reds had reached some understanding over Adolfo Luque persisted in spite of Hendricks' statement that Larry Benton and Fred Fitzsimmons were the only Giants he wanted. If even have both for 1927 delivery, the pin boys were very hastily picking up the debris down at the end of that alley. If Luque comes to the Giants, it is possible that ready and money, the greatest battery baseball ever knew, may go to Cincinnati in return.

Yanks Go West

Meanwhile, the Yankees were heading into the west for the American league meeting in Chicago tomorrow, with "heads" out to Washington, Boston, Cleveland and Detroit on possible player deals. They say the Yanks will get Berry, the Boston catcher, and Bluge and Lisselius, of Washington. Just what the Yanks plan to give in return has not been divvied. Maybe they will give their hot regards. These may not stop a lot of hits down the third base line at Washington but that's all right, too. Neither will Dugan and Rutherson. The Detroit angle is shrouded in mystery, as we say at the police station, but everybody and his Aunt Agatha knows that one concern the Yanks may have with the Indians will have with George Uhle.

The Cincinnati club started something when they asked for waivers on Kelly and Pipp, their two first basemen, but apparently it has lost interest in the play and is not inclined to run it out. The Braves wanted Kelly from Cincinnati; the Reds wanted Ichiburg from Boston. The pin boys still were trying to set this up again at a late hour last night or maybe I mean the day after tomorrow. One becomes confused about these details.

News to Dreyfuss

Dreyfuss says his trade for Glenn Wright is all news to him. Which now bow badly a man can be foisted be the little intricacies of life. Before closing this one, they really should have told Barner something about it.

There hasn't been any denial of the Cardinals' purported attempt to dispose of Rehm and Doherty. And, just to keep the record balanced, it might be mentioned that there hasn't been any affirmations, either.

In fact, you can bank on only one thing about a baseball meeting and that is that you can bank on nothing in connection with it. They say the Giants are set to make a play against the "chain-store" operation of small clubs by the large owners; that the Brooklyn situation will be threshed out, whatever that is; that Bill Klem will be invited to retire from retirement; that some big, important, new club, a Northeast version, will be chartered and some club may be voted down to "shut" the Pacific west. Some part for home owners.

This is reported to represent the summary statement of the meeting, a summary statement, I mean, however, and I am sure of it that they will extend the pleasure to the Cardinals, however, that they won 12,000 last year and were in second place.

Eagles Will Face Veteran Team

STARS OF KENTON COURTS SCHEDULED FOR NEXT CONTEST

Has Long String of Successful Seasons in 27 Years

A QUINTET of basketball stars, who have been playing together for a good many years, will be seen in action here Wednesday night playing the Marion Eagles in Star auditorium at 8:15 o'clock.

The Kenton Reds holds record as being the oldest team in the state in the point of organization. Year after year the club puts successful teams on the floor. This year will mark the twenty-seventh year that Kenton has had a team playing under the name of Reds.

Paul Shields and Carl Rubins will hold down the forward posts for the visiting aggregation. Shields is a Wittenberg man and played with Olson's Swedes on a tour several years ago. Thorpe's Indians once carried Rubins on their roster as did the Columbus Kinnears.

BIG BOY LYNN will jump against Taylor when the game starts. Lyman played basketball at Whiteman and Toledo university. Ollie Bowers will be seen in the running guard position. He played at Miami and with Thorpe's Indians. Carter handles the other guard berth and he received his basketball instruction at Dayton and St. Xavier.

Barker will be carried as a substitute and as a man to send in when the score is close. Last year he caused quite a lot of comment when he shot 40 straight foul baskets before missing.

GIRLS WIN

Forest Gridlers Take One and Lose One to Ads

Forest, Dec. 11.—Forest high school opened the basketball season with one win and one loss to the Ads high school teams. In the girls' game the Forest team came out on top with a score of 19 to 16.

In the boys' tilt following the girls' game, Handing, all-tournament, regional, started for the visitors with three field goals. Forest's beginners held the tournament round-up in even score the first half ending 5-5. Coach Hattie's midget dash, "Nellie" Anderson proved a puzzle to the Ads aggregation. With the exception of occasional roughness contributory to early season and football technique the game was exceptionally clean and fast. Forest next entertains the fast Radnor, Delaware county basketers, Dec. 11.

OPEN DEC. 15

Gambier, Dec. 12.—With the opening game of the court season only a week off, when Ashland meets Cincinnati, Coach E. G. Evans has been driving his men through long sessions every afternoon. The line-up against Ashland on Saturday, Dec. 15, will probably be: Evans and Boltzell on top at forwards; Lyman at center; Robison and Hall at guards.

BETTER MAN

Fremont, Dec. 11.—George Godfrey, black mace of the prize club, who meets Jim Sigma, former champion of the U. S. Navy in Fremont on the evening of Wednesday, December 12, states that his principal reason for appearing in a city of 16,000 population is to show up Johnny Blisko. The Cleveland "ruthless man" has appeared here three times during the past two years and Godfrey says that he intends to show the Fremont public that he is the best man of the two, and that the devious Blisko gained over him in Brooklyn last summer was a pure fake and simple Godfrey also goes on record as saying that the beating he gave Blisko has started the latter on the down path to success.

The first reason is that of the directors who assemble in the grand headquarters. This is to be followed by a meeting of all the club owners in Fremont for the 1928 season and will plan for next year. They have few problems to solve.

Motor And Oil Stocks Lead Moderate Advances In Prices

MONEY RATE EASES UP IN OPENING HOUR

Packard Leads Motors with Six-Point Jump to Over 145

RADIO HIGHER

All Issues on More Attractive Basis; Offerings Are Small

BULLETIN
New York, Dec. 11.—Nearly all sections of the stock market stepped into line in the moderate upturn of prices today. With most of the sore spots removed, and the money bags again at the disposal of the market, the road to recovery was open and the big financial district more cheerful. Many of the brokerage houses sent out "confidential bulletins" to their customers telling them that the flurry in the stock market had blown over, for the time being at least, and advising them to buy some of the stocks that lie tempting on the bargain counter.

BY W. S. COUSINS
I. N. S. Financial Editor

New York, Dec. 11.—The motor stocks and the oil led the upward move in industrial stock prices this morning. Radio pushed its way back to 311 for a new six point gain over Monday's close as the big bears and bulls came together in a clash over the slender blocks of stock offered for a hungry bull or bear.

Two things influenced the further rally in stock prices in the first hour today:

First, the easing up of the money market, with an adjustment of the bankers that conditions were not so bad after all.

Second, the fact that most of the stockholders of stocks had been sold out; the bulls all gone and the good stocks on a more attractive selling basis. Pools put their stocks on the bargain counters, dressed their valances up attractively and invited the public to come and buy.

Packard Motor's new six point jump of 145-12 put that stock well out in front as the leader of the motor list. This is a recovery of 11 points from yesterday's low price. Chrysler at 121 was up 5-1 for the day and 10 points since yesterday noon. General Motors, Studebaker, Yellow Truck, Briggs Manufacturing and Hupmobile sold higher.

Standard Oils were the best ground-gainer in the oil list. Atlantic Refining sold up two points to 57-12; Standard of New York picked up point at 38-1 in very active trading.

Motor And Oil Stocks Lead Moderate Advances In Prices

MONEY RATE EASES UP IN OPENING HOUR

Packard Leads Motors with Six-Point Jump to Over 145

RADIO HIGHER

BULLETIN

New York, Dec. 11—Nearly all sections of the stock market stepped into line in the moderate upturn of prices today. With most of the sure spots removed, and the money bags again at the disposal of the market, the road to recovery was open and the big financial district more cheerful. Many of the brokerage houses sent out "confidential bulletins" to their customers telling them that the flurry in the stock market had blown over, for the firms being at least, and advising them to buy some of the stocks that lie temptingly on the bargain counter.

BY W. S. COUSINS

New York, Dec. 11—The motor stocks and the oil led the upward move in industrial stock prices this morning. Hudson pushed its way back to 311 for a new six point gain over Monday's close as the big bears and bulls came together in a clash over the slender blocks of stock offered, hardly enough for a good breakfast for a hungry bull or bear.

Two things influenced the further rally in stock prices in the first hour today: First, the easing up of the money market, with an admixture of the bankers that conditions were not so bad, after all.

Second, the fact that most of the stock-kneed holders of stocks had been sold out; the bulls all alone and the good stocks on a more attractive selling basis. Pools put their stocks on the bargain counters, dressed them up attractively and invited the public to come and buy.

Packard Motor's new stock price jump of 145 1/2 put that stock well out in front as the leader of the motor list. This is a recovery of 11 points from yesterday's low price of 121 was up 5 1/4 for the day, and 10 points since yesterday's close. General Motors, Studebaker Yellow Truck, Briggs Manufacturing and Hupmobile sold higher.

Standard Oil's were the last round-gainer in the oil list. Although the Refining sold up two points at 57 1/2; Standard of New York picked up 38 1/4 in very active trading.
